Files of the Passport Office, Department of State, were reviewed on December 12, 1961, and reflected DALITZ was last issued Passport No. B195021 at Los Angeles, California, on July 5, 1961, for a proposed three week pleasure trip to England, France, Italy, Switzerland, Japan, and Hong Kong. He indicated he intended to depart from New York City by unknown means of transportation about July 15, 1961, and he was not traveling by organized tour. He indicated he expected to travel abroad again in two years. The passport was valid for three years' travel to all countries except Albania, Cuba, and those portions of China, Korea, and Vietnam under Communist control. Under current passport regulations, the passport could be used by subject for lawful travel within the period of validity whenever and often as desired without further notification to the Department of State or other government agency.

On the passport application subject showed his date of birth as December 24, 1899, at Boston, Massachusetts, and his permanent address as Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn, Las Vegas, Nevada.

State Department files reflect that he had previously been issued a passport on September 28, 1955, and this was renewed on April 22, 1957.

Records of Immigration and Naturalization Service, New York City, were checked on December 26, 1961, and reflected that subject departed New York City on December 7, 1961, via Trans World Airlines en route to Paris, France. His destination was shown as Rome, Italy, and then to Nairobi, South Africa. Reservations for the trip to Nairobi were made by Fugazy Travel Agency, New York City.

Las Vegas will start extensive remodeling on about 2/1/62. Over 100 additional deluxe rooms are to be constructed, the casino, dining room and show room are all to be enlarged in addition to other extensive changes. The present casino cage and counting room are to be moved back from the present location and DALITZ and his associates are also considering constructing a convention hall adjacent to the hotel. The convention hall is almost a necessity at the present time, since practically all the other better hotels on the "Strip" have or are constructing convention halls to be operated in conjunction with the hotels.

During the period of construction, which is scheduled to be completed in July, 1962, progress will be followed closely with the objective of effecting technical coverage on subject and the hotel. Agents will maintain close liaison with local telephone contacts and will also attempt to establish contacts with local contractors. Particular attention will be given to the executive offices and the counting room and any other logical locations that may be may-be productive.

The Bureau will be kept advised of developments.

SUBJECT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS.

Just For The Record

Most Nevadans are aware that an increasing number of national publications have lately attempted to paint a rather sordid picture of our gaming industry.

Everyone in the industry, from hotel managers on down, should be concerned because such adverse publicity can only serve to damage our economy.

It is hardly by chance that some of the national magazine articles have picked on Moe Dalitz and his partners at the Desert Inn.

In fact, it seems pretty clear now that information blackening the Desert Inn (and thus hurting the entire industry) has purposely been fed writers of national publications.

Hardly by coincidence the small morning paper in Las Vegas realize the morning publisher's so-called Desert Inn and Moe Dalitz.

It is doubtful that the owners of the Desert Inn are too concerned about such an attack on a local level. After all, nobody really takes the Sun's publisher too seriously anymore. Everyone knows that to satisfy his own ego he has to stir up a storm every couple of months. (We are happy to note, however, that since we mentioned it in the R-J, he is not running his own picture in the Sun as frequently as before.)

But it is not a laughing matter when information damaging to our gaming industry is purposely fed to national magazines.

Because most of the nation looks at gambling with an awkward eye, Las Vegas is forced to spend many hundreds of thousands of dollars annually to create a favorable image, to attract tourists, and to bring national conventions here.

But the publisher of the Sun apparently is intent upon getting Moe Dalitz and the Desert Inn — no matter what the cost.

The Sun publisher seems to think that gamblers are bad, and Mr. Dalitz is the most evil of the lot. This is quite a switch: He apparently didn't have this holier-than-thou attitude years ago when he worked for the late Bugsy Siegel. And, he apparently didn't think that Mr. Dalitz was too bad when he worked for him as a publicity agent of the Desert Inn years ago.

Why is the morning newspaper's attack centered on Mr. Dalitz and the Desert Inn rather than other members of the gambling fraternity? Could it be that the Sun publisher has never forgotten that Dalitz once fired him? Could it be that Dalitz and his partners refused to go along with a golf course deal or other business propositions the Sun publisher wanted them to enter into?

Apparently the Sun publisher didn't think Mr. Dolitz was so bad that he couldn't go into business with him. Dolitz became evil only when he would have no part of certain business deals.

Mr. Dolitz and the Desert Inn refused to be shaved around, refused to enter into deals with the Sun publisher, and so they are now subjected to the same old pattern of vengeful destruction.

Mr. Dolitz and the Desert Inn really need no defense from us. They have done far more for Las Vegas than the publisher of the morning paper. The vicious and vindictive attack upon them is motivated entirely by selfish, personal business reasons.

It is fortunate that the vast majority of people in Las Vegas realize that morning publisher's so-called great dedication to principle and his incessant boasting about protection of the "little man" is as phony as the publicity he used to write for Bugsy Siegel. Unfortunately, his ~~intent~~ intent to destroy those who stand in his way is doing great damage to our city and our state.

records show that there are 200 shares of common stock authorized for issue by Emprise Corporation. Forty shares have been issued and are wholly owned by the High Park Corporation. [REDACTED] further stated that stock control of High Park Corporation is vested in LOUIS M. JACOBS, 889 LeBrun Road, Eggertsville, New York as President and Secretary, who holds 15,000 shares of second

WILBUR CLARK is President of the Desert Inn Hotel and is the owner of record of 17.2 per cent.

MORRIS BARNEY DALITZ is listed as Vice President and is the owner of record of 13.2 per cent.

[REDACTED]

KLEINMAN and TUCKER each own 13.2 per cent, RUBY KOLOD, 13.1 per cent, and THOMAS J.-MC GINTY, 7.1 per cent.

b7c [REDACTED]

Since the above activity took place in a locked room and outside the regular accounting office, it would appear [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were splitting up the money taken "off the top" from the casino operations of the Desert Inn Hotel. The sums mentioned apparently represent the take for one month. In most cases no effort has been made to reconcile these figures since the participants were themselves confused and the figures were frequently mentioned out of context and with no other identifying information.

This split apparently represents only money from the Desert Inn Hotel operation and it would appear they were going to meet [REDACTED] at one o'clock to secure and divide the illegal take from the Stardust Hotel.

It is interesting to note that while WILBUR CLARK is President and owner of record of 17.2 per cent of the Desert Inn, he apparently received only $5,615.00 [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] came to Las Vegas a few months ago from the Cleveland area. [REDACTED] went from there to Miami, and a few weeks ago was again reportedly in Cleveland.
